Billy can you see the light?
can you feel the sun waiting to shine on you?

Oh Billy here comes the night here comes the walls ready to fall on you

So don't look back thats all right don't look back until the morning light Don't look back to hear the noise don't look back until the madness turns to joy

Candy can you feel the pain? can you feel the same love you had?
Oh candy you're running from the old running to the new let me run with you

I stand alone
it happened so long ago the shape of a skull
it happened so long ago
beneath the cross
it happened so long ago
I saw my reflection
