Water

Tiny at first then bigger

And it flowed right down

From the highest hill

And it grew and it joined

The battling burn

And it flowed right through

To where we are now

Standing

Beside a cool cool stream

It's hard to imagine

The great and terrible river you'll be

Bringing life or rest

Or wonder

Or high high tide

And in times like this

You bring me here

And when the wind is blowing quick time

For the waves to be dancing by

And the moon is watching over

The purple gloaming sky

I'll go walking

Yeah

One day

I'll go walking

Sometimes I come down here

And I don't know why

It's like a garden or a room

Or a dream that you

Keep on trying to find

It leaves you feeling that maybe

Maybe there's a destination you've missed

And all along the way you hope the reason that you

came was blessing

Hah

Some holy kiss

And when the wind is blowing quick time

For the waves to be dancing by

And the moon is watching over

The purple gloaming sky

I'll go walking

Yeah

One day
I'll go walking
Yeah
Let me ask you a question
Give me the
Just give me
Just give me five
Did you see the picture
Or did you read the book
I mean
Did you really go there
Or were you only took
I said
Were you believing
Or were you just shook
Well I went inside and I
It was dark and
Then I stood
I stared out long and fast
Till my eyes were hurting
And I saw the hands on the saviour
And all his bloody feet
And his hair and his clothes were all
Mattered and torn
Were they only dirty from the beating of the soldiers or just
Just from walking
Walking
Walking
When the wind is blowing quick time
For the waves to be dancing by
And the moon is watching over
The purple gloaming sky
I'll go walking
Yeah
One day
I'll go walking
I said
One day
I'll go walking
I said
One day
I'll go walking
I'll go
One day
One day
One day
One day
I'll
Walk right back
I said I'll walk right back

I'm just fine
Walking back the road
Gotta find
Gotta find
Gotta find
Yeah
Ooohooo
Holy kiss
Walk
When I find my way
When I find my way
Till I find my way
Till I find my way
Walking
Walking
Walking
Walking
Walking
