"Dynasty"

My daughter spoke through tear streaked eyes,
Oh daddy daddy please don't die,
I said Listen Either way I'm done for.
Just remember what I come for.
Remember me. I said you know the God to whom I pray, they'll be a time when hell call me away,
but listen either way I'm done for,
you just remember What I loved for,
please remember me, I'll see you soon.
When I'm dead will my children say
My father had a destiny and he fought to taste it, so now because of him I can arise and say,
I'm part of a dynasty that won't be wasted.
I'm not wasted.
Dynasty Eternal Dynasty His Eternal Dynasty.
