Should I use my heart?
Or my head?
I wish that I could could just replay the thoughts
Or things I never said
Should I use my heart?
Or my Head?
I wish that I could just turn back the time
Start over again

But if we're laying it on the line this time
I better say this now

You make me feel low
Don't make me feel low
Cuz I tried so hard to convince myself
It's ok that I feel this way
You make me feel low
Don't make me feel low
If I can't have you I'd be by myself cuz
You know I need you so

Don't make me
Don't make me feel low

Tell me why
Did it take 26 years to figure out how to love
Just to throw it all away (throw it all away)
She said
Maybe if you'd been a little bit smarter
Maybe if you tried hard enough
I wouldn't question
Why I shouldn't stay
If you expect me to come back around
You better show me that you've changed

You make me feel low
Don't make me feel low
Cuz I tried so hard to convince myself
It's ok that I feel this way
You make me feel low
Don't make me feel low

If I can't have you I'd be by myself cuz
You know I need you so

Don't make me, don't make me
Don't make me walk out the door
Don't you throw it away
Don't make me, don't make me
Cuz I'm leaving for good
And I'm not coming back again

When I said it was over I meant it
But now I can't let you go
But still I just can't accept that you make me feel so
You make me feel so

You make me feel low
It's ok that I feel this way
You make me feel low
If I can't have you I'd be by myself cuz
You know I need you so
