Ooh ooh ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh ooh ooh...

Hey, I know it hurts to watch me leave
But say it ain't so, how could you ever replace me?
You're so shy when you want to be Standing in front of me, mind's spinning circles
You're waiting to speak
These hands here in front of me, anxiously wait to see How's it gonna be?

Before I go, oh oh oh oh
Let me remind you what you're waiting for
Before you go, oh oh oh oh
Could you love me just a little bit more?
One more time

Ooh ooh ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh ooh ooh...

Hey, hey darling, it's so damn hard to say goodbye
You know I'll try my hardest, I'll never change who I am inside
Life's so hard when it's gotta be Standing in front of me, clothes on the floor, your eyes are on me
If tonight's all we got, keep your arms right where they should be
Keep 'em wrapped around me

Oh oh oh oh
Let me remind you what you're waiting for
Before you go, oh oh oh oh
Could you love me just a little bit more?

Say, "Baby, don't go, go, go
I don't think I'm finished with you yet
Baby, don't go, go, go
I'll never be finished with you"

No, no, no, don't go now, baby
Don't let me fall asleep alone
She said, "Oh no, no, baby
I can't do this on my own"

Before I go, oh oh oh oh
Let me remind you what you're waiting for
Before you go, oh oh oh oh
Could you love me just a little bit more?
One more time

I'll never leave too long
I want to make it clear
And if you wait for me
I'll always keep you here

Oh oh oh oh
Let me remind you what you're waiting for
Before you go, oh oh oh oh
Could you love me just a little, love me just a little bit more?
Love me just a little, love me just a little bit more?
