I go home to a family that needs me
And I sit there with you on my mind
I keep thinking of some way to tell them
That someday I'll have to leave them behind

But how do you talk to a baby?
What words will a child understand?
If I could just walk off and leave them
Tell me dear, could you love that kind of man?

Yes, I guess that it's best you forget me
Maybe time will erase all the pain
And I thought it over it's not worth it
Maybe someday, dear, you'll learn and understand

Ohh, how do you talk to a baby?
What words would a child understand?
If I could just walk off and leave them
Tell me dear, could you love that kind of man?
