As it was in the beginning
Then so should it end
Don't let a lover become just a friend
Oh no

I made you a promise
I vowed I would keep
The candle's still burning, the river runs deep
My love

Didn't you know, couldn't you feel
Couldn't you tell that it was real
Couldn't you tell that it was real

I dedicate to you
All my love my whole life through
I'll love you forever and ever
Every day, every hour we share
I'll treasure you, I swear
I'll love you forever and ever

What we join together
Let none tear apart
We give one another our hand and our hearts
My love

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
Will love last forever
I know that it must
My love

Now you can see
Now you can feel
Now you can tell that it was real
Now you can tell that it was real

I dedicate to you
All my love my whole life through
I'll love you forever and ever
Every day, every hour we share
I'll treasure you, I swear
I'll love you forever and ever

I dedicate to you
All my love my whole life through
I'll love you forever and ever
Every day, every hour we share
I'll treasure you, I swear
I'll love you forever and ever
