From coast to coast by night and day, hear the clickin' of the wheels

The hummin' of the diesel on her ribbons of steel Carryin' the memories of a nation built by hand
See the Indian Pacific span the land

She's the pride of all the railway men 'cross country where she flies

From the blue Pacific waters to where the mountains rise
By lakes and wide brown rivers, through desert country dry
See the Indian Pacific passin' by

Oh the Indian Pacific she goes rollin' down the track Five thousand miles to travel before she's there and back

Beside the line, a drover waves his battered old grey hat

And kids are catchin' yabbies down by the river flat And a woman hangs her washing in a backyard near the line
As the Indian Pacific's rollin' by Instrumental

Hear the whistle blowin' lonely 'neath the Nullabor star light

Saluting those who walk across the track she romps tonight

Callin' to the railway camp and the fettlers on the line I'm the Indian Pacific, right on time

From the silver of the Broken Hill to old Kalgoorlie gold She mirrors all the colours of the land so hard and old Then the western clouds are blooming and the air is just like wine

And the Indian Pacific's makin' time

Oh the Indian Pacific she goes rollin' down the track Five thousand miles to travel before she's there and

From the waters of the western sea to the eastern ocean sand
The Indian Pacific spans the land
Oh the Indian Pacific spans the land
