And we won't stop

'Cause we can't stop

No we won't stop

'Cause we can't stop

I heard you got

Plenty of money

Plenty of clothes

An escalade, a Porsche

And a house on a hill

A platinum watch

Platinum rings

Platinum cards

A condo in Beverly Hills

And they say that

You're a millionaire

But baby I don't really care

'Cause I just want

For you to see that

All I want is you

I heard you got Gucci belts

To match ya boots

Versace wear, Chanel

And Fendi suits

Purple light Benz

Purple light Lexus coupe

And you make sure

Ya friends are 'bout it to

And you say that

You're a millionaire

But baby I don't really care

'Cause I just want you

To see that

All I want is you

[CHORUS:]

All I really want is you

Believe it

'Cause what I say is true
Not interested in
What you do
'Cause all I really want is you

I heard you got
Sexy eyes, sexy lips
Sexy feet, you got
Sex appeal
The way you
Wear your hair
The way you dress
And girl the way you
Make me feel
Makes me want
You more and more
You're everything
I'm lookin' for
And I just need for you
To see that
All I want is you

Baby I love your personality
I think you're everything
A woman should be
Like picture out of a magazine
Or a vision from
My wildest dreams
Makes me want you
More and more
You're everything
I'm lookin' for
And I just need for you
To see that all
I really want is you

[Repeat chorus five times]
