Girl I don't understand, 'stand the reason why, why you act this way

What did I do, tell me what the problem is?

I don't wanna see, wanna see you leave

Wanna let you go, I just wanna find a way to work it out

We've been through so much, good and bad times

Girl I did you wrong, you forgave me then we tried to start over

And I apologized tried to make it right, so many times

Now I think it's time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long

And we thought that we could make it work but we were wrong

And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"

Baby I think it's time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long

wrong

And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"

Baby I think it's time to let this go

Girl it's hard for me to tell you that it's over, I hate feeling this way

But I know you know things just haven't been the same

We always said that we, we would tell the truth

No matter what it is, can't continue to pretend our heart is in it

I'm waiting for you to see the reality

We at dead end, there no way to go unless we gonna to be just friends

I love you so much, never thought that I would ever have to say

That I think it's time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long
wrong
And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"
Baby I think it's time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long
wrong
And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"
Baby I think it's time to let this go

What happened to the love?
What happen to the girl, the girl I fell in love?
I never thought I'd been the one to say, "Goodbye" I'm sick and tired of the arguing and I don't wanna do it again

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long
wrong
And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"
Baby I think it's time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long
wrong
And neither one of us wanna be the first to say,
"Goodbye"
Baby I think it's time to let this go
