I don't understand, stand the reason why, why you act this way
What did I do, tell me what the problem is I don't wanna see, wanna see you leave Wanna let you go, I just wanna find a way to work it out

We've been through so much, good and bad times Girl I did u wrong, you forgave me then we tried to start over
I apologized tried to make it right
So many times,
Now I think it's time to let this go
And even though I love you and you've been with me for so long
And we thought that we could make it work but we were wrong
But neither one of us wana be the first to say goodbye
Baby I think it's time to let this go (X2)

Girl it's hard for me
To tell you that it's over,
I hate feeling this way
But I know you know things just haven't been the same
We always said that we, we would tell the truth
No matter what it is, can't continue to pretend our heart is in it
Im waiting for you to see, the reality
We at dead end, there no way to go unless we gonna to be just friends

I love you so much, never thought that I would ever have to say that I think it's Time to let this go

And even though I love you and you've been with me
for so long
And we thought that we could make it work
But we were wrong
But neither one of us wana be the first to say goodbye
Baby I think it's time to let this go (X2)

Ohh girl, what happened to the love what happen to the girl

The girl I fell in love with I never thought I'd been the one to say goodbye

Im sick and tired of the arguing and I don't wanna do it again
Again
Woo
