Like a closing door, I'm slowly shutting down.
Like a falling leaf, just waiting for the pound.
Don't even bother, nothing can stop it;
Tried my best, but I just can't help it.

It will take a lifetime before I love again.
You will see me die before I love again.
Say my last goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.

All the broken pieces' shattered all around me.
They've been lying there since the day that you left me.
My last chance to fight against her;

Tried my best, but I can't break her.

It will take a lifetime before I love again.
You will see me die before I love again.
Say my last goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.

It will take a lifetime...
It will take a lifetime...
Before I love again.
You will see me die before I love again.
Say my last goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.
Say my last goodbye; Goodbye; Goodbye.
