"Where I Belong"

My path to light is gone, my place to rest!
(I saw it all so clear, the dream of my life do appear) to finally see it!

All my life, awaiting this, I live my life for this moment,
and now I see myself as part of it all (they are as one)

My way in life is gone, there's nothing to remake, (I tore my pictures down, my fate the most beautiful crown)
To finally see it, to finally grab it!

All my life, awaiting this, I live my life for this moment,
and now I see myself as part of it all (they are as one)

Bring me where I belong, where the path now is gone
(now is gone), bring me where I belong, where I can turn to life!

Bring me where I belong, where I can turn to life

(My dream, my soul), to finally see it, (to finally grab it!

All my life, awaiting this, I live my life for this moment,
and now I see myself as part of it all (it all)
(They are as one)

All my life, awaiting this, I live my life for this moment,
and now I see myself as part of it all (it all)
(They are as one)

Bring me where I belong, where the path now is gone,
bring me where I belong, where I can turn to life"
Bring me where I belong, where I can turn to life
