Heart

I think it's time for you to pack your bags. c
An't you see you're not wanted here anymore.
This campground heart is kind of full with more important things.
I shut the windows.
Raised the bridges.
Kicked you out and closed the door.
Hey world you lied to me.
Its not as easy as you said it would be. hey world can't
You see you're not for me.
I spent too long sitting here by myself.
But I always thought that you were by my side.
This illusion has got to go.
Something has got to go.
Away from me.
