I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
I'm not what you think
Or am I?

Or am I what you think?
Or am I what you think?
Or am I what you think?
You can never, ever know
You can never, ever know

Please keep far away -Far far away
Keep far away -Far far away
Far away -Far far away
Far away -Far far away
Please keep far away -Far far away
Keep far away -Far far away
Far away -Far far away
Far away -Far far away
I won't let you walk away
Without hearing what I have to say

I won't let you walk away
Without hearing what I have to say

That place in my mind,
Is that space that you call mine
That place in my mind,
Is that space that you call mine

That place in my mind,
Is that space that you call mine

So please just trust in us
Just trust in us
Trust in us
Us

So please just trust in us
Just trust in us
Trust in us

Danger
Danger
Danger
We too feel alone
Danger
Danger
Danger
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone
We too feel alone

That place in my mind
Is that space that you call mine
That place in my mind
Is that space that you call mine
That place in my mind
Is that space that you call mine

Where have I been all this time?
Lost, Enslaved, Fatal decline
I've been waiting for this to unfold
But the pieces are only as good as the whole
Sever myself from my own lie
And cut up the only thing that was right
What if I never saw you again?
I'd die right next to you in the end

That place in my mind
That space that you call mine
That place in my mind
That space that you call mine

I won't let you walk away
Without hearing what I have to say
Without hearing what I have to say
Without hearing what I have to say

Danger

Danger
