We were ready for anything

Everyone knows some pain

I see the loss every time some ones says your name

When you know someone who shines hard

A soul of the age who doesn't care

Who the fuck you are

You had a friend, a brother who was everything

But he had to go away... that was yesterday

I've lost a lot of people in my time

The good, the bad, the unreal,

And the one who shine

So I know you all understand

When I say that until they left

We were ready for anything... but this

(chorus)

You are not gone

We keep you here inside us

You are not gone

We know you're still beside us

You are not gone

We have this light you gave to us

Now it's time to lay to rest our friend
And through these songs
His memory will never fucking end
We will see that
Through this loss we'll shed some light on you
Until the day you left us
We were ready for anything...but this
You are not gone
We keep you here inside us
You are not gone
We know you're still beside us
You are not gone
We have this light you gave to us
Why'd you have to go? we never had a chance
I can't believe it so I wont admitt it
Life ain't shit without you in it
You are not gone
We keep you here inside us
You are not gone-
We know you're still beside us
You are not gone-
We have this light you gave to us
Everybody says the light that shines the brightest
Burns out fast
But what they never say is
All the light they give us lasts

We hold the memories and cherish

Everyday we had

But we would give it up in a second

Just to have you

Back!!!
