Now it's time, for it to start
Take it up, tear it apart
Stare at me, find what you need
Stare at me, nobody but me
Now it's time, your teeth grind
Can't you see, wouldn't you agree
Bite your tongue, and don't hold back
Say it clear and don't react
You turn away, and shut me out
It's not my fault, don't make it my fault
Now it's time, your teeth grind
Can't you see, wouldn't you agree
You say you know, you come and go
Repeat
Now it's time, I'm feeling restless
Is there something I can do to regret this?
Take a breathe and hold it in
I'm running out of answers again
Now it's time, your teeth grind
Can't you see, wouldn't you agree
You say you know, you come and go
Repeat
1,2,3,4, you're out the door, can't take this anymore
Commit the crime your eyes go blind, you're losing your mind
Take my word, take my advice
That would be nice, not too precise
Things are going well, turn your back what the hell
You say you know, you come and go
Repeat three times
