Roam,
In this faded dream,
Can you hear me when I scream?
To you... ,
Have they been in vain?
I am still the same,
All my fear endured my pain,
Explain what remains,

Staring back,
Empty mirrors only fill my eyes,
Nothing's left to recognise,
So I tell myself that I'm alive,
I still hear you,

Tock tick tock,

Time has frozen here (here),
I can feel that you are near (are near),
I wish (I wish),
Time will take you back (back),
Let it change this (this),
Writing all the words again (again),
And live (and live) not pretend (not pretend),

Staring back,
Empty mirrors only fill my eyes,
Nothing's left to recognise,
So I tell myself that I'm alive,
Eventhough I'm not,
I know I'm not... ,

Staring back,
Empty mirrors only fill my eyes,
Nothing's left to recognise,
So I tell myself that I'm alive,
I still hear you...

Tock tick tock tick tock tick tock...
