"A Wanderer's Star"

My hollow eyes, behold the wall my state, catatonic my inner self plagued by disdain by disdain...

i am so new, so disharmonic blinded by a higher level of insight i am evolved, so disharmonic muted by enlightenment of thought

- i am glorious, - you're a sheep among the herd
- i am righteous, - guided by an unseen hand
- i see clearly, - you're a sheep among the herd
- i am glorious, - you're a sheep among the herd a dark liquid of repulsiveness pulses through my body i let my veins surface but what drains me is red

a wanderers star

i long for the shelter, where i once was wish to be the blind sheep, herded by the unseen hand
