

Slumber "Conflict"

Visit "Conflict" on MotoLyrics.com

Cathode rays of sunlight burning in my face evolution thru convergence a conflict bred inside intrigued by desperation a final struggle yet to fight as my escape draws nearer for my retreat to breach the brim i taint the thoughts of ignorance unfeed the soil on which i stand undress my mind from the sting open the gates, and leave all hope chaotic atmospherics repel my rusted mind all the prints are turned pitch black a conflict born outside the hollow trails from what was we torn apart by an endless tear i've already been on the inside reaching out for none
