From birth placed in a mad society feeding on illusions speaking a tongue of misconceptiousness forging a machinery of indoctrination i have found the lock to my golden chain now where is that key?

is this evolution?
is this the long road of the fallen?
i tried to grab on to life but it flows like water see my name written in heroin open eyes, corrupted minds falling up down from my world closed eyes, a dying mind conspiracy, the way to rebirth break the walls of truth fallout!

fading.. anguished..
throw me in a sea of filth
