stop using me up - you try to shatter me down now stop making no sense - you try to teach me around now stop trying to be nice - I don't believe in your show stop trying to be cute - you're self-addicted and cold stop sucking by billing what you're willing to do none of us will listen to what matters for you stop talking about your beautiful way of life all the time stop trying to be good - understanding and blessed now you better get yourself packed - stand up and get dressed now stop knowing it all - you're nerve-rackingly wise mister cosmopolite in a cosmic disguise stop singing about the things that you have seen in l.a. never gonna listen to that talk anyway stop running on a teenie weenie kind of parade every little move on it is making me hate stop living this american way of life all the time go leave us alone go leave us alone now leave us alone now away
get away
this is no holiday, baby
leave us alone
