for you i've got a broken face for me i am a fairy tale revise my bleeding alibi. surprise my living was a lie.

the grind behind my ears as i'm starting to smile my strange carrers to hide from death for a while somehow i will (cut...) and so they say the time is high to go to see you passing by hello: whatever i'll defy i know i'll have a second try
