And one day, I think there is a way out. one fine day, I think it comes to an end. then I step across a bordering line from the inside, to where it all began. slower than before. and I know I have to give it one more try. lower than before. then I know I have to say this world goodbye. there is nothing, that will bring me down... nothing that will bring me down... there is nothing that will bring me down.. æ... cause I am on the ground and I don't mind the people around. there is nothing that will bring me down... cause I am on fire... I am on fire... on that day I know I get it all back. and if I lucky, then I get back to you. then I good enough to pick up my track and then I calculate the things, that I say and do. slower than before, and I know I have to give it one more try, lower than before. then I know I have to say this world goodbye. there is nothing that will bring me down... nothing that will bring me down... there is nothing that will bring me down... cause I am here on the ground and I don't mind the loudest sound. there is nothing that will bring me down... cause I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire... one by one, lost myself. I used to play somebody else. one by one, lost myself. used to play someone else. one by one, lost myself. used to play someone else. one by one, lost myself. I used to play somebody else. there is nothing that will bring me down... nothing that will bring me down... there is nothing that will bring me down... cause I am on the ground and I don't mind spectators around. there is nothing that will bring me down... cause I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire... I am on fire
