There was a silence
After the overwhelming conversation that I mistook.
There was a car door, there were bright red tail lights
Set into motion by your foot.
It was a hot night,
It was a moonlit sunday,
We were driving on the 13th of June.

I know i know i know she said, you are still angry.
And i know i know i know she said, this really isn't the time,
But how about..

CHORUS

You me, forget it in the backseat,
Clothes off, down around our feet.
I say we give it a try...
'cause we could just pull off the side of this back road.
No one would ever really have to know,
Tonight it's just you and I.

Silver quarters in a photo booth
It printed little pictures of you
Colors of midnight
Florescent waves in sight.
As we were leaving Pier 13,
It was open door and turn the key
And we just drove away
Silently, quietly..

I know I know I know I said, you are still angry.
And I know I know I know I said, this really isn't the time,
But how about..

You me, forget it in the backseat,
Clothes off, down around our feet.
I say we give it a try...
'cause we could just pull off the side of this back road.
No one would ever really have to know,
Tonight it's just you and I.

Car turned off on the side of the road

Head lights pass and we duck down low
Jump in the back and we'll take it real slow,
Real slow..

Summer song on the radio
Dashboard lights make a dim halo
Two foot prints on a clouded window,
Window..

There was a silence, there was a silence..
So how about..

You me, forget it in the backseat
Clothes off, down around our feet.
I say we give it a try...
'cause we could just pull off the side of this back road
No one would ever really have to know
Tonight it's just you and I.

So how about
You me, jump into the backseat
Clothes off, down around our feet.
I say we give it a try...
