

Smart Went Crazy "Con Art"

Visit "Con Art" on MotoLyrics.com

When I catch the man that took my peace of mind I'm gonna teach him what being nuts is all about One by one I'll pull out his teeth And then I'll make him laugh They don't call me a con artist for no reason I don't say "non chevalier" to just anyone They don't call me the queen bee for no reason I don't say "get your hands off me" to just anyone When I find the man that stole my thunder and clothes I'm gonna show him what beign bad is all about If your such a bad ass Why haven't I seen any blood?
