I walk on water When it freezes That don't make me jesus I hide the artifacts of the process Behind a drag and drop gaussian blur I found it behind a window I don't know what it's for I'm throwing shapes Just what you need Another reason to stare at the screen Yeah, yeah, yeah The digital birthday camera swivels To catch your guileless smile in it's lens You raise your hands up to block it And ruin it for your friends Yeah, but later they double click on your hand to remove it Wich only serves to prove this one thing When they say they believe in immutable beauty They must be selling something Selling something And I don't want it You don't need it Zero zero zero one one one They're throwing shapes Just what you need Another reason to stare at the screen Yeah, yeah, yeah
