Begin-run, the race has begun.
You know you gotta 5x get ahead of everyone.
Money talks when you're walking with the living dead.
Dead man walking with the living.
And in the end you stink like shit.
But who's gonna pay for it?
I see the power, one sided struggle.
Spotlight cinema picture via open mind
And if you start to slip through financial pipe
Dreams for a shot at exponential wealth, disgusting.
Look at this blessing, so much integrity.
Lets exploit it and avoid it's repercussions.
