"Chaos And Lawlessness"

Riots every night? Got no curfew. Riots every night, red and blue in the rearview.

They said "spread em! you fucking queers!" We said
"we've had it up to here!"

Into the night, we disappear. See you in the morning in riot gear.

Tonight, tonight, riots tonight.

Comply, comply, comply, comply. Giving up, call it freedom, in fact it's just a lie.

We burned the books and they come to arrest us.
Chaos and lawlessness unites us.

Tonight, it's fucking riots outside of Paris.
