Jeremy:

I'm not scared to tell the truth
I've been to hell and back and I went with you
Remind me what we were before
When we said, "You are mine and I am yours"

Katharine:

I don't know much but I know myself
And I don't wanna love anybody else
So let's break the spell and lift the curse
Remember where we fell for each other, head first

Jeremy:

Look at this heart-shaped wreckage
What have we done?
We have got scars from battles
Nobody won

We can start over, better
Both of us know
If we just let the broken pieces
Let the broken pieces go

Katharine:

I can't find you in the dark
Will we get back to who we are?
And I can't fix this on my own
Our love is still the best thing I've ever known

Both:

Look at this heart-shaped wreckage
What have we done?
We have got scars from battles
Nobody won

We can start over, better
Both of us know
If we just let the broken pieces
Let the broken pieces go

Jeremy:

Let the broken pieces go

Both:
Just hold on to each other tonight

Katharine:
Ohhh...

Both:
Look at this heart-shaped wreckage
What have we done?
We have got scars from battles
Nobody won

We can start over, better
Both of us know
If we just let the broken pieces
Let the broken pieces

Jeremy:
Let the broken pieces

Katharine:
Let the broken pieces...
