Verse 1

You are a dream come to life
I thought I never would find
You gave me love and asked for nothing in return
Except my heart for all time

Bridge 1

So why did I hide my emotions away
That question will haunt me till it's my dying day
'Cos I had you here
Could have had you still
Should have begged you to stay

Chorus

I didn't hold you the way that I could
I never told you the things that I should
It's down to me that you walked out that door
I should have loved you more

Verse 2

You gave me plenty of time
You never pushed me enough
The hardest part is that I loved you from the start
But I would not let it show

Bridge 2

Why did I hide my emotions away
That question will haunt me till it's my dying day
Now I know what to do and I know what to say
But I know I'm too late

Chorus

I didn't hold you the way that I could
I never told you the things that I should
It's down to me that you walked out that door
I should have loved you more

Middle eight

More should have loved you should have told you baby, how much
I really care

Bridge 3

Why did I hide my emotions away
Try to forget you but it doesn't work out that way
Everything I pray I will get one more chance some day

Chorus

I didn't hold you the way that I could
I never told you the things that I should
It's down to me that you walked out that door
I should have loved you more
