You will fly away again, you will
Straight into the heart of the sun
Straight into the heart of everyone

You will break my heart against my will
I'll be dead of your gun
I'll be dead of everyone

You fly away when you say that you won't
You laugh alone when you swear you just don't
I can't rule you no more

Go buy you another son
Go find you another son to love
Go buy you another son

Go find you another son
Go buy you another son to gun down
Go find you another son

You don't want me anymore
You don't need me anymore
No more

You will fly away again, you will
You will fly away again, you will
Straight into the hearts of the sun
You will break my heart against my will
You will break my heart against my will
I'll be dead of your gun

Fifty two crows in a field of love
I've got fifty two crows in the field of love
Well, one crow turns to the other crow and says
I know we got bad luck, but look at him flying over there
Rather be a crow

Fifty two ladies in a field of love
Fifty two maidens in a field of love
Well, one girl turns to the other girl and says
Hey, have you seen my love anywhere

It's been so long since he was home
Boo-hoo

Two white horses unloved
Two white horses unbound
Come take me to my burying grounds
We're going to take my grave with silver spades
And everyone will wave
And we'll all pretend we're on TV
All my dreams are on TV
All my dreams are on TV
The constitution will not be televised
And everybody sleep well

We ain't going anywhere
We ain't going anywhere
We ain't going anywhere
We ain't going anywhere
I don't even, even care
We ain't going anywhere
I don't even, even care
We ain't going anywhere anymore

I don't wanna, wanna die
I don't wanna, wanna die
I don't wanna, wanna die
I don't wanna, wanna die
I don't wanna, wanna die ever again

The scary part
Again, this is the scary part
Scary part
