peace and love aren't fair when you're stuck out there standing on your own trying to catch a wave

even though I will even if I won't even when I signal that we'd get back home ask me what to say I'll point to the sky ask me what i need to tell you a lie just ask me what i need to tell you all a lie there's a crowd outside calling for our lives peace and love, they're here living in an old school bus ask me where i think I'll say i have to go is it this in me that strikes your side so bold ask me for tonight I'll pat you on your back and find a way to one day pay you all right back I'll find a way to pay you all soul right back peace and love ain't fair when you're caught on fire a bird's nest in my hair fourteen missiles in my gut so ask me what I think I'll tell you I owe no one and leave without another peep or a lie waving to that crowd calling for my neck but tell you what I need to tell you the truth gonna tell you what I need to tell you the truth in the redwood pines they stole out my spine in this town called zen I'm asking where it went the joke about the fog the one about your dog the one about where we all seem to get along lifted from the mines and sifted through my mouth a blessing so you'll never have to dig back down blessings so you'll never have to dig back down supposing I admit defeat fearing what comes next at my master's feet on the mount of Lazarus ask me what to do I'll just point to you and ask you what I need to tell you all the truth take this second look imagine what's been robbed imagine if we wanted we'd all get along
