blew, blew away
but i don't wanna fade
blew, blew, ooh
and if you love her you know it will come true and if you need her you know that she'll be there stay awake, i lie here with her and i fall and when i wake inside you i know you know i'm yours
blew, blew away
and if you're sad, too until the angel sings and touches you don't confuse my only life i said blew, and please don't ever leave And i will greive, and (re)member thee Hope to meet you there (solo)
i wanna let her know
And i wanna let her go
i wanna let her know
That i love her so i'm blew, blew, blew away but I don't wanna-blew, I love you
blew
