(feat. Tammy Payne)

I'm on a motorway, a subway
I'm on ever last fuel
I've got love and light in my pocket
And I am not afraid to use
I'll just sprinkle
A handful
When you need

There's a red speed demon
Taking over your mind
Your highway goes to forever now
There's no rewind
I'll just sprinkle
A handful
When you need

In a flash of joy
I'm taking over
In a flash of joy
I'm all you need
In a flash of joy
I'm taking over
In a flash of joy
It's all worth while
