Let's go

You should learn to hang around
Something might happen
If you stood still and listened
Something might speak to you

You move, you run
You move, you run
You move, you run

Oh you move but I can see the tracks
They go in circles
It takes a big strong noise to reach you
Something to penetrate your walls
That you built when you went up high
And even from there you could see that i
I wanted to try
I wanted to try
I wanted to try
I know you could see that I wanted to try

If you stop moving things around
Something might move you
If you stop moving people around
Something might move you

You move, you run
You move, you run
You move, you run

Oh you move but I can see the tracks
They go in circles
All of the new stuff you bring you brought it before
But you don't even know
Because you're floating on another high
But even from there you could see that i
I wanted to try
I wanted to try
I wanted to try
I know you could see that I wanted to try

I've got visions of you in my head
I've got visions of you in my head
I've got visions of you in my head
I've got visions of you in my head

You move, you run
You move, you run
You move, you run

You move
You move
You move
You move
You move
You move, you run

Let's go...
