Oh yeah ee... alright ah ah ah ... oh God knows
No justice ... tice ...tice .. oh yeah x2

The reason why our lives they are so rough
Because the system is unjust
And the reason why the system is unjust
Because it's not made for us (repeat)

Many they flight for equal rights, no end in sight
Some hold the power so tight, and live alife that's nice
Who pays the price ?

You've got to fight, with all your might for what is right
It is your life, you have a choice you've got a voice

No justice no peace if equal rights and justice is what you seek
No justice no peace the power to the people they must be released
(repeat)

No justice ... tice ...tice
No justice ... tice ...tice

No justice no peace if equal rights and justice is what you seek
No justice no peace the power to the people they must
be released
(repeat)

(repeat first verse x2)

The reason why our lives they are so rough
Because the system is unjust
And the reason why the system is unjust
'cause it's a fraud and a bogus
Fraud and a bogus, fraud and a bogus

No justice ... tice ...tice
