I cannot stop it, the thoughts are running through my mind

No I can't drop it, the break is always too hard to find
I cannot hold it; the strings are way too thin to hold on I can't control it; my brain is keeping me on the run

So come and take me away, please hold me back when I stray

Now can you heal what I feel I am falling today Oh can you colour my grey and get them back make them pay
Oh please take away my sorrow for the rest of the day.

I want a time out 'cause I can't face it
Can take it no more, it's a too big a chunk to break it
What I really need is something to replace it
I am falling apart, there's no time left to paste it

I feel the pain it's burning me deep
I feel the fire hiding in me

I've gotta calm down, I need an exit now
I've got to try and find a way to get a grip somehow
'Cause I'm choking now, exploding now
I'm gone looking for trouble I am on the prowl

So try and take me away, don't hold me back when I stray
Don't try to heal what I feel, I am falling today
You cannot colour my grey, I get them back make them pay
I'm gonna take away my sorrow for the rest of the day

I feel the pain it's burning me deep
I feel the fire hiding in me
So hold my hand and take me away
Away from everything that is me

I wanna get it come on
I gotta get it now
