Ooh...hoo...ooh...

Ooh...ooh...

Let me be the clock for the time of your life

Oh, yeah

Let me be the pendulum that strikes your chime

For the first time

Im a cuckoo I know

Counting hours till we will be together

When the door to my heart will open it's for sure that I will be hopin, hopin that you

Will let me be the clock for the time of your life

Oh, yeah, baby, oh, yeah, babe

And let me be the pendulum that strikes your chime

For the first time

Let it begin

Cause every moment were apart

Is some good feeling wasted

A good feeling deep down inside me told me

A good time for me to try to get you to hold me

Is right here and now so

Let me be the clock for the time of your life

Oh, yeah, oh, yeah, baby

And let me be the pendulum that strikes your chime

For the first time, for the first time

I wanna be your pendulum, baby

Striking your chime

Hickory dickory dock

I want to be your clock

Just set me for lifetime

And I'll wake you up every morning

Woo...woo...ooh...let me

[Let me be the clock for the time of your life]

For the time of your life [Oh, yeah], oh, yeah, oh...

Let me be the pendulum striking your chime for the first time

And every time after that cause I know where it's at

So let me, let me, let me, let me, let me, let me, baby,
ooh, ooh
And let me be the pendulum striking your chime for the first time
For the first time

[Ooh...ooh...ooh...ooh...]
[Ooh...ooh...ooh...ooh...ooh...]
Strike your chime
One time, baby
Strike your chime
One time
Let me be the pendulum that strikes your chime
For the first time, ooh

Let me be the clock for the time of your life
Oh, yeah
And let me be the pendulum whos striking your chime
for the first time
And every time after that cause I know where it's at

ooh, ooh
Let me be the pendulum striking your chime for the first time
