That place, deep inside of you that special place, you give me

That you say is mine exclusively what you say is my private domain

You've made that so plain
where no other one is allowed

Cause it's mine, all mine, all mine, all mine makes me feel so proud what you say is my territory is there just for me

ooohh
it's my paradise
ohhhh
it's my comfort zone

it's so very nice knowing there's a part of you that's mine alone

there's no place like that place
deep inside of you
that's always ready for me that's so full of love and you let it flow free it comes flowing down like warm summer rain

before the feelings over here it comes again

no place like that place

no place

wanna tell you that
no, no, no, no place
deep inside of you
