Winners

Everybody wants to be a winner
Winning is everything, uh
Nah, winning, it's d only thang
[Incomprehensible]

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

I can jump out the jet, I can run, I can swim
I'm heavy on the case, I stay in first place
Mud on my shoes, taste blood on my face
Out of town, touchdown, never outta bounds

I train for the gold, I can go twelve rounds
Steal city, baby, we are super bowl bound
Record like it sank while I check a checker flag
All this winning got me grinning, all this losing got you mad

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

No more Chuck T's on my feet
It's just Adidas, man, they kept it true to the streets
And like The Siege, I'm on a 50 game win streak
I can't be beat, I am the real heat

Real king, real rings, that's what we say
I threw a shirt out and cut out, I'm on my way
PGA car, under he may play
It's what amazing happens in the NBA, eh

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Eo, we don't take 'em on the west side
Yeah, I was born to be the best ride
Rest and sleep is for the weak
The last shot, y'all can go and put it on me

The last swing, the last throw
Double U is all a dog know
W-I-N, W-E-S-T, O-G
Snoop D-O Double G

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game
Winning ain't everything, winning, it's d only thang
When you're living life in the game

Yeah, no matter what game it is Winning it ain't everything, it's the only thang
And make sure you go hard, blood sweat and tears Shout out to all the winners out there, that's all I do is win, ya digg?
It ain't easy, congratulations
Winner
