Is time to do something it's not I can only give you everything I have got I can be as sorry as you think I should But I still love you more than anyone else could All that I have been thinking through out this will fight
Is it could take my whole damn life to make this right This splintered mast I'm holding on won't save me long Because I know fine well that what I did was wrong

The last girl and the last reason to make this last for as long as I could First kiss and the first time that I felt connected to anything
The weight of water, the way you told me to look past everything I had ever Learned
The final word in the final sentence you ever uttered to me was love

We have got through so much worse than this before What's so different this time that you can't ignore
You say it is much more than just my last mistake And we should spend some time apart for both our sakes

The last girl and the last reason to make this last for as long as I could
anything
The weight of water, the way you told me to look past
everything I had ever
Learned
The final word in the final sentence you ever uttered to
me was love

The last girl and the last reason to make this last for as long as I could
anything
The weight of water, the way you told me to look past
everything I had ever
Learned

The final word in the final sentence you ever uttered to
me was love

And I don't know where to look
My words just break and melt
Please just save me from this darkness

And I don't know where to look
My words just break and melt
Please just save me from this darkness
And I don't know where to look
My words just break and melt
Please just save me from this darkness

And I don't know where to look
My words just break and melt
Please just save me from this darkness
