You called my name in the dark
Called me back to the start
The condensation is building tension
A stubborn silence is formed
'Round our bodies it's warm
The cool wet grasses as summer passes
Frightened under attack
Fallen flat on my back
Arms and legs, I'm too scared to beg
Harm me most when it's light
The thought of you don't sit right
I need the darkness, a death grip embrace
Reason cities to dust
Faces dripping in lust
Fallen empires and raging bushfires, fires, fires
All your words unfounded
Secret lives bound in bed
Living backwards, entangled backwards
Words
Ruined everything right
So good, I can't see the light
From my cave I can see the wave
Fallen empires and raging bushfires
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light

(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
We are the light, we are the light
(Run to the fire)
