Take her home
Take her past this evening
I'm not sure
Sure if I believe you

You carry a gun for fun
You use it twice as easy
I'm sure she is
She is someone's daughter

I couldn't even feel that
It was wrapped around my head

I'm coming down
Coming down the next day
She was beautiful
The prettiest girl I've ever seen

I saw everything
Things I hoped I'd never see
She got away from him
And got on a plane this morning

I couldn't even feel like
It was wrapped around my head
I couldn't even feel like
It was wrapped around my head

[Incomprehensible]

I am not sure what she's done
But don't even wanna think about it
She made me answer this
But instead I remember now

I didn't even feel like it was
Wrapped around my head

[Incomprehensible]
