You can't find the fall
So you can call it off
But it might be for the best
You can walk away anyway
Because you've nowhere else to go

Is he worth all this
Is it a simple yet
Cause if you have to think
That's f*cked
Feels like you've loved him more
Than he loved you
And you wish you never met

Don't kill love now
Don't kill love
Don't kill love now
Don't kill love

Keeping up all night
And the night before
And you've lost count of drinks and time
And your friends keep calling but we're sick
And there's strangers everywhere

Don't kill love now
Don't kill love
Don't kill love now
Don't kill love

Only little, only a little moment
It all implodes
This isn't everything you are
Breath deep, plea in the silence

No sound or moves
This isn't everything you are
Just take the cuffs off her
And hold on tight
This isn't everything you are
There's joy upon from here, right
I know there is

This isn't everything you are

When you took the call
How could you know
That he'd slipped away last night
When you wish you'd rant
Home days ago
To say goodbye, or just hello

Don't kill love now
Don't kill love
Don't kill love now
Don't kill love

Only little, only a little moment
This isn't everything you are
Breath deep, plea in the silence
No sound or moves
And hold on tight
I know there is

This isn't everything you are...
