Such a hassle, all the hands in your pocket
Swallow all of it, wash it down with pride
Send the shivers, up and down their spines
Save the calm, save the palm (?)

Macerated down to the bone
Almost hate it, but I know that you don't
Caught in waves of endless spinning
Bet on red but black keeps hitting

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Red Corvette and lithium
Long winter, you went south
There's no way to go back now

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Red Corvette and lithium
Long winter, you went south
There's no way to go back now

Bend a little, get what you can get
All I have won't cover half of the rent
Tried to swallow but it just couldn't end
Save the calm, save the palm (?)

Macerated down to the bone
Almost hate it, but I know that you don't
Caught in waves of endless spinning
Bet on red but black keeps hitting

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Red Corvette and lithium
Long winter, you went south
There's no way to go back now

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Keep your mouth off the (?)
I shiver down south
There's no way to go back now

There is no way, no way to go back now

There is no way, no way to go back now
There is no way, no way to go back now
You can never, never come back now

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Red Corvette and lithium
Long winter, you went south
There's no way to go back now

Bop your head 'til the beat comes
Keep your mouth off the canyon
I shiver down south
There's no way to go back now
There's no way to go back now
There's no way to go back now
There's no way to go back now
There's no way to go back now
