I've been here for hours
but now it seems like days and the walls all look the same Now the end is near They're boring me to tears and now no-one knows my name (chorus)
Room 67
is the place I dread I wish that I could go to hell instead They don't believe me
but they're blind and deaf
This rooms the only thing that I've got left

It's the only thing that I've got left
Now I'm going out I'll try to find out how I got locked up in this room
The ceiling seems to shout
it wants me to get out
So I can start my life
again (chorus)
Room 67
Room 67
Room 67
Room 67
Room 67
Room 67
Room 67
It's the only thing that I've got left
