Dead Kennedys "Forward to Death"

Visit "Forward to Death" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't need your way of life I can't stand your attitudes I can do without your strife I don't need this fucking world I don't need this fucking world

This world brings me down Gag with every breath This world brings me down I'm looking forward to death

It seems so unreal to me So much hate and so mouch pity I can't take another day It's such a bore It gets me really sore I don't need this fucking world I don't need this fucking world I don't need this fucking world This world brings me down Gag with every breath This world brings me down I'm looking forward to death Looking forward to death
