

So I Shot Myself "Till The Casket Drops"

This is the day that I overcome.
This is the day that I push back.
For far too long I've been held back.
I am alive. I am not a clone.
Do not deny me of my fucking rights,
Take this as a threat. You will suffer.
You will be left chokingÂ... bleedingÂ...
Choking, bleeding, eyes receding, painful breathing,
no more screaming.
This is the day that I push back.
For far too long I've been held back.
I am alive. I am not a clone.
Do not deny me of my fucking rights,
And I will show you what it takes to be a man.
To stand tall.
To be strong.
To laugh in the face of adversaries.
Now is my time to stand up and conquer all.
I'll stand tall. I'll be strong. Till the casket drops.
Till the casket drops, I will be strong.
I won't let those fuckers break me. Can't break me.
Won't break me.
Till the casket drops.
You will suffer.
ChokingÂ... bleedingÂ... eyes recedingÂ...
