Don't act so discouraged
We're not decaying yet.
Artifacts won't stop our tracks.
Experts won't expect.

See the fire glowing underneath our beds.
We've not seen the worst of this yet.

The right brain wants the beat played
Much louder than the left.
Bodies get what bodies want
And bodies don't forget.

See the orchestration in the devastation.
See how the collapses fire the synapses.
See the clouds are burning, flaming overhead.
We've not seen the worst of this yet.
See the fire glowing underneath our beds.

We've not seen the worst of this yet.
We've not seen the worst of this yet.
We've not seen the worst of this just yet.
